TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

The man who is at present a squatter in the White House is represented as being in a great rage over the action of the fifteen Republican Senators who voted for free silver in defiance of the known wishes of the administration. He is so mad that he is represented as pouting and grumbling and talking that the Western Senators are bolting the party.
He declares that under no circumstances will he sign the free coinage bill if it passes both houses of Congress. He is very bitter, and is quoted as saying:

"I am not here for the purpose of acting in the interest of myself or my party, but in the interest of the whole country and the people. When my term is out I expect to return to Indianapolis, and resume the practice of law."

He would have hit the truth nearer if he had said: "I am not here for the purpose of acting in the interest of the whole country and the people, but in the interest of the Money Lords, whose (heretofore all powerful) cannot keep me here, then I will retire to Indianapolis and continue to be their agent, as I have ever been, and as I am."

Washington correspondents of the New York Star and Atlanta Constitution say that he has made up his mind not to be a candidate for renomination.
His attitude on the silver question will, if nominated, cause him to lose half a dozen Western States, but his life-time sympathy with the monetarists and monopolists is stronger with him than his ambition, and it has paid him better.
But both have a strong hold upon him.

HARRISON is mad, no doubt, because his party in the Senate broke away from his instructions and refused to support the WINDOM bill. But he is not as mad as the newspaper correspondents seem to think. He has no idea of retiring from the Presidential race, whatever he may say in his speech. He has, from the first act, showed his determination to secure a re-nomination, and to hold his party in such near and close intimacy with the Money Lords of the country as to be in a position to "fry the fat out of them" again as in the last campaign.
He believes that Boodle will buy up the Western Republicans more effectually than an advocacy of the measure nearest their hearts.

He has great confidence in Boodle.
Why should he not have? It elected him without a doubt and he believes it is all-powerful. He will be over his pet in a few days, and while he will veto the free-coinage bill, if the House passes it, he will seek by the use of patronage to make fair weather with the silver Republicans.

HIT IT AND NO MISTAKE.

Mr. CRISP scored a success in his characterization of SPEAKER REED and the hold he has upon the Republican party when, as published in yesterday's CHRONICLE, when he drew a simile between the remark of Mr. BURTON in praise of the Speaker and that of the Hindoo who approaches his god saying: "I know that he is ugly but I feel that he is great."

JOHN ALLEN will have to look to his laurels or the Georgia member will take them from him.

The CHRONICLE is glad to correct an error that Mr. EWART would vote for a Federal Election Law. As published in yesterday's CHRONICLE, he patriotically opposes it. It shows that he has backbone and does him honor. The CHRONICLE is glad to give him the credit of praise his enemy not deserves.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

ALREADY PEOPLE ARE TALK-ING ABOUT CANDIDATES.

The Chronicle Gives the Gist of Some of the Gossip about Politics That is Heard These Days.

The Chatham Record says that it has heard of no opposition to the renomination of Associate Justice Merrimon, Associate Justice Clark, and Congressman Bunn.

There is no opposition to Hon. B. H.
Bunn in Orange, and we can hear of none in the district. We suppose he will be nominated by acclamation.
Orange County Observer.

Mr. J. W. Mauney, of Salisbury, withdraws from the race for the solicitorship and asks his friends to vote for Mr.
Long. It is a graceful act gracefully performed, and Mr. Mauney shows himself in it a good Democrat, a just man and a gentleman of good feeling. His card, which appears in another column, does him credit. -Statesville Landmark.

David A. Covington endorses the principles of the Farmers Alliance, and says that if nominated and elected to Congress he will use his influence to secure any reasonable legislation the Alliance may ask for. For this reason the Register thinks every member of the Alliance can support him and at the same time remain true to the Alliance principles.
-Monroe Register.

The whole district recognizes the fact that Johnston is the strongest county in the district and that we are entitled to all our claims. We have the man for the place and he must be put in. Our delegations have gone to conventions divided, but this time they must and will work together. Our people are a unit for Four or Sixty. We will get help from all the other counties and with our own large vote our candidate will be nominated. -Smithfield Herald.

A correspondent of the Mecklenburg Times says: "I am myself not a member of the Alliance, nor do I favor secret societies or any sort of class legislation, but I am a farmer and a neighbor of Capt. S. B. Alexander's, and I believe that the fight he is making to secure for agriculture its just rights and influence overrides all other questions; and I write this short note to say that Capt.
S. B. Alexander is entitled in all the relations of both private and public life to the encouragement and support of the farmers. On certain lines he is strongly conservative. But because of his advanced views on finance, trusts, transportation and other business reforms, he is opposed by all the powers of money and monopoly. Let good men of all classes rally to his nomination for Congress."

COL. H. C. JONES

Gives His Reasons for Declining to Sign the Demands of the Alliance.

The demands of the Alliance were presented to Col. H. C. Jones, candidate for Congress in the Sixth District.
The following are his reasons for declining to sign them: 1st. The free and unlimited coinage of silver; 2d. Prohibition of alien ownership of land; 3d. That all revenue be limited to the expenses of the government; 4th. That fractional paper currency be issued.

Col. Jones wrote the following in reply:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 18, 1890.

L. M. McAlister, Esq., Secretary Mecklenburg County Farmers Alliance:

SIR: I have carefully read the demands in the shape of a declaration of principles submitted by the Alliance and respectfully decline to sign the same.
In announcing myself as a candidate I distinctly stated that I did so subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention to be held at Laurinburg on the 29th of July. If nominated I shall be the candidate of that party, standing squarely upon its platform.

My first allegiance is to the party whose candidate I aspire to become. To it, in my opinion, this country owes whatever of liberty and good government it enjoys, and whoever undertakes to set up a standard of political principles independent of it, is disturbing its harmony and destroying its efficiency. It is the party of the people. As a proof of the fact, it succeeded on yesterday in securing the passage through Congress of a bill providing for the free coinage of silver, which I notice is one of the measures demanded by the Alliance and is engaged at this very moment in a struggle against the great evil of class legislation in the shape of burdensome tariffs, subsidies, etc., which is another of the evils of which the Alliance complains. Cannot the people safely trust this great party to labor for it in the future as it has done in the past?

But there is another objection which I have to signing the pledge which you present in behalf of the Alliance. I am reliably informed that of the twenty-five hundred farmers in this county, less than twelve hundred of them are connected with the Alliance, and that in this Congressional district less than one-third of them belong to it. Now, you have excluded those non-alliance farmers from your deliberations as you have excluded me; you have not given us an opportunity to hear your discussions of these measures. If elected to Congress I will recognize this fact, that a large majority of my constituents are farmers. I hope I should labor for their improvement, but I certainly would be liable to be greatly embarrassed if I were to pledge myself in advance to that one-third of them constituting the Alliance without waiting to hear from the two-thirds majority for whom the Alliance does not speak.

It seems to me that the Alliance has erected one-third or less of the farmers into a special class, and is demanding CLASS LEGISLATION in accordance with their peculiar views. Is not this doing what the Alliance itself condemns? The white men of this State cannot afford to divide or risk division. The Republican party has commenced a new crusade against the South in the shape of a Federal election law that proposes to set over us at the polls supervisors, creatures of its own, to rob us of the meet-able right of free election. It has not abated one particle of its hostility to our people and in such a crisis God forbid that you or I or any other white man should imperil that unity in the ranks of the Democratic party which has been our only salvation in the past.
Respectfully yours,
H. C. JONES.

A DELIGHTFUL RETREAT.

A Number of Prominent People Already Here.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

HOT SPRINGS, N. C., June 18.

A few years ago there was nothing here but what was known as the Warm Springs Hotel. Now there is quite a little town, the name of which is "Hot Springs." The Mountain Park Hotel, which is its new name under the present management, is a most delightful resort. Comfort and convenience seems to have been wisely consulted in all the arrangements about this hotel.

In addition to the "Mountain Park," there is the Chalybeate House, near the depot, patronized by thousands of people. Then, there is "The Loretta Hall," a most charming retreat. This is an extremely home like and attractive place.
Mrs. Williams, the proprietress, is skilled in her business. There are quite a number of prominent people at the Springs, among whom are H. D. Bird and family, of Chicago; F. M. Oliphant, of New York; T. O. Eiders and wife, President U. S. Bank, at Hartford, Connecticut; Pullman, of the Pullman Car Company and others. Some prominent North Carolinians are booked for the summer at these springs. W.

W. E. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

As the Summer advances it becomes more and more evident that Black Nets and Black Lace Flouncings will be even more used than last season.

This season has been a phenomenal one with us in the sale of these goods.

During the last few days we have called attention to some special numbers in these Black Laces.

Those are not all quite sold yet, and if contemplating buying a Black Lace, you will find the prices on these much less than they were a few weeks ago.

Of Embroidered Flouncings we have still some of our handsomest patterns.

However, the prices on these now are no more than much inferior pieces were a little earlier in the season.

And to those who have delayed buying their best white dress, we especially call their attention to the prices we have made on these high grade flouncings.

that every disease is

CAUSED BY MICROBES,

—AND—

RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER

Exterminates the Microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of Malaria Fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all dis-
